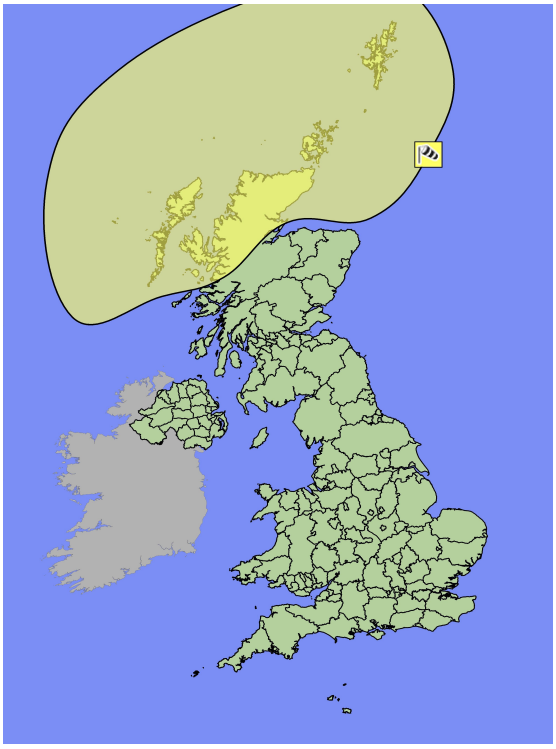
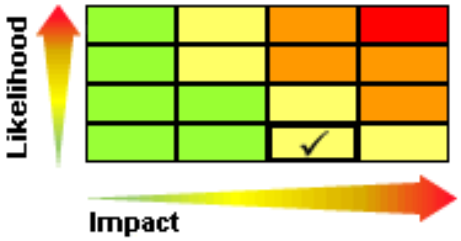
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Another deep depression is expected to pass to the north of Scotland, bringing the threat of 70-80 mph gusts to coasts and hill. At this stage there is a fair amount of uncertainty about the track and depth of the depression, and this warning will be kept under review.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Alert of Wind

Valid from 12:00 on Sat, 26th Nov 2011 until 15:00 on Sun, 27th Nov 2011

There is a risk of severe gales or storm force winds over northwest and far northern Scotland during Saturday and Sunday. Combined with high tides, there is the risk of large breakers over topping sea fronts and causeways, and of coastal flooding in low lying areas.
